The former couple were made man and wife, at the hour of 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Laurin, on Fifteenth street. Rev. W. Northshore Extension—During the present week contractors will be invited to look over the ground to be traversed by the extensions of the I. R. & N. line from Ilwaco to Knappton, Wash., preparatory to bidding on the work. Final locations have been made and deeds are now being secured to rights of way. A force of men has been put to work near Cook's Landing, grubbing the right of way preparatory to letting the grading contracts. The extension of the I. R. & N., a Harriman property, will be done by the Columbia Valley Railroad, as the preliminaries are being attended to by officials of the latter corporation. Ultimately this line will be extended eastward from Knappton to a point near Kelso, where it will connect with the Harriman line to the Sound. The first section of the work will be 16 miles in length. Its estimated cost is $300,000. A large part of the new line will be built through rock and the work can be carried on about all winter. It is expected to have the extension completed by next Spring.

All Among the Cranberries—J. M. Arthur, the well known merchant of Portland, was in the city yesterday and in course of a conversation with a reporter for the Astorian, said he had just come over from his cranberry ranch back of Ilwaco, and was eager to secure 100 or more pickers for the very abundant crop of that fruit prevalent on the northshore marshes this season. He and his partner, Dorsey B. Smith, have from 1,200 to 1,500 boxes yet to pick and are paying 50 cents per box. There are eighty people now on the marshes who are making from $2 to $3 per day at the business and more are needed as fast as they can be gotten. The work will last from three weeks to a month and all conveniences will be supplied on the grounds for those who desire to come and a postal card dropped to Mr. Smith, car of the "Breakers" hotel, will put that gentleman in touch with those who may go there, and he will be on hand to show them to the grounds and help arrange for their comfort.

Eigner-Houck Nuptials—At 8 o'clock last evening, in the presence of a large and select circle of friends, gathered at Grace Episcopal church for the happy occasion, Mr. William Albert Eigner and Miss Edith Jane Houck, both well known young Astorians, were made man and wife, according to the beautiful ritual of the Episcopal church, Rev. W. Seymour Short officiating. The decorations in the church incident to the happy event were elaborate and beautiful and consisted mainly of vari-tinted Autumn leaves and all the blossoms of the season in dainty array and apt seasonal. The pretty bride was attended by Miss Louise Leeman of Portland, and the groom had the services of Mr. W. R. Hume; the ushers, who cared for the visiting contingent, being Messrs. Robert McLean, W. F. Gratke, L. E. Howes and George Stevens. Miss Carrie Short presided at the organ in her customary brilliant way, and after the ceremony, the bridal party adjourned to the Grand Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Prael, where a delightful reception was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Eigner.

Treasure Enriched—The crew of the bark Homeward Bound was paid off here Tuesday and they at once started out to do things. The "hard silver" was soon changing hands at a lively rate, and a great quantity of "Ferdinand DeSoto's water" from the fountain of youth was consumed. Before very great damage was done, however, seven of the merry party were rounded up by members of the local police force and placed in the city jail, where they could cool off a little and reflect on their conduct. When brought before Judge Anderson yesterday afternoon, the septet waived examination and were released on bail of $5 each. At a late hour last evening they had not put in an appearance, so it is surmised that the money is as good as the city's.

Farewell Banquet—As an evidence of the high esteem in which he is held by his many friends in this city, Carl Funch, who has represented Klevenhausen & Company, of Germany, in the fish industry this summer, was tendered a banquet last night at the Klevenhausen cold storage plant at Altona. Mr. Funch will leave for Germany today and it is probable that he will return to Astoria next year in the same capacity. Mr. Funch was very popular here, and it is sincerely hoped that he will be located here again next season.

At the Hospital—A few more unfortunate were received at St. Mary's hospital yesterday. Among the number are Rev. Father Waters, rector of St. Mary's Catholic church, who is critically ill; the little daughter of Captain Smith, and Mrs. Higgins, of Nasel, who accompanied her baby, which is suffering from some cause that the doctors are unable to deter-

SENATOR FULTON SAYS

Oregon Is Not Fairly Treated in Matter of Reclamation Fund.

Word comes from Pendleton indicating that the second day at the Morrow-Umatilla District Fair was a good one in point of attendance and interest displayed. The feature of the day was the Irrigation and Development League meetings, at which many prominent men spoke. Senator Fulton was perhaps the chief speaker of the day and spoke for half an hour on the National Irrigation fund. He used plain terms of displeasure at the treatment Oregon had received in regard to the distribution of the reclamation fund.

"I do not charge any one with bad faith," said the Senator, "and it may be that we ourselves have been to blame for not making proper and intelligent demands for use of money within the state, but it is a fact that the state of Oregon has not received what it is entitled to from the reclamation fund."

The Senator went on to say that it would be wise and was the duty of Oregon people to demand of the government their dues. He told of the policy not to increase the fund other than from the proceeds of the sale of public lands and said Oregon should insist on securing proper recognition, now that the time was ripe and the money was in the Treasury.

Jewels and Jewel Work—Astoria has another establishment where those who have jewelry and watches and all things in that line to repair, may take them with confidence in their being well an dthoroughly handled at the hands of a skilled workman. Frank J. Donnerberg has opened a handsome and complete shop at No. 110 Eleventh street, and will be glad to meet and serve at this old friends and such new ones as desire his service. He was with Mr. Seymour here for three years and is equipped to do the finest of work in his line.

Deaf and Dumb—Officer Houghton of the police department, last evening picked up a good looking lad, of 16 years or thereabouts, who was begging on the streets by means of a printed card setting forth his infirmities and soliciting alms. He was taken to the city hall and made comfortable for the night and will be turned over to the county court today for subsequent and proper disposition. It is very unusual that persons so afflicted are found begging, and it is safe to assume there is something besides mere inclination compelling this lad to such a recourse. He is bright and tidy and deserves a better "steer" than that of a beggar. His name is Clarence Mackey.

Clearing Fishing Grounds—Dick Meyers, the submarine diver, and the pile-driver, J. A. Munroe, have been at work since the close of the fishing season, clearing away the obstacles in some of the most prominent gill-netting or drifting grounds. The diver and pile-driver respectively are employed by a club of gillnetters, and the work of snag pulling progresses at a rapid rate. They have been working near Deadman's sands and within the past month 123 old piling and 51 snags have been removed. There still remains much to be done, and the work will be continued for an indefinite length of time.

Good Work is always appreciated. Frank J. Donnerberg, the up-to-date watchmaker and jeweler, will repair your watch and do it right; carries a full and complete line of watches, jewelry, opera glasses and umbrellas. 110 11th St. 9-27-11
